

Michael spent his entire life giving to others and placing himself last. He was a leader and advocated for all human services in his community and the City of Boston, especially for the elderly and disabled challenged individuals.

He was recognized as follows:

Brigham & Womens Hospital
Carl & Ruth Shapiro
Cardiovascular Center, Boston, MA

On April 18, 2018 Mike was awarded a "Certificate of Appreciation" for his participation in a the Medical study/research for Heart Conditions. Mike was deemed as a "SURVIVOR" by his surgical medical team.

Spaulding Rehabilitation Center, Charlestown, MA

Mike devoted 31 years of his life as a volunteer "Empowerment Representative" in the "Amputee/Technologies Acess Dept. encouraging individuals of all ages about his life challenges in society for positive recovery with the use of prosthetics.

Roxbury, Dorchester Boys & Girls Club of America and Mattapan Teen Center

Volunteer after school tutor/youth worker
Bell (Building Educational Leaders for Life), afterschool & summer academic program tutor for Boston Public School scholars.

Boston Police-Area B, Mattapan Senior Community Program.
Mike was a active member advocating for his community thru the City of Boston Elderly Commission, City Hall. He also served in various neighborhoods

Fair Foods and Trader Joe Community Food Programs.
Various site on Boston Housing Authority Properties and Private owned Elderly Complexes throughout the city.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS:

Easter Seals, Boston, MA 2003-2005 Completed Courses: Business Management & Computer Technologies

Odwin Learning Center, Dorchester, MA 2006-2008
Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission

Mike received college credits for his 2 year completion in Automated Bookkeeping and Accounting Skills in his pursuit to becoming a Public and Tax Account. Mike enjoyed working with numbers and hoped to work independently someday.